

Fudan University International MBA Program

Brief Introduction

The Fudan-MIT International MBA (IMBA) Program was launched in 1996 through collaboration between the Fudan University School of Management (FDSM) and the MIT Sloan School of Management. This program, taught entirely in English, aims to cultivate professionals with an international perspective and entrepreneurial spirit, well-adjusted to the demands of economic globalization in China and the rest of the world. The Fudan-MIT International MBA Program participants who complete all required courses and a thesis will be awarded a MBA degree from Fudan University and a course certificate from the MIT Sloan School of Management. FDSM ranked Top 10 in Asia, No.1 in Mainland China in the UTD Top business schools research rankings 2013-2017; Fudan IMBA Program ranked 42nd in Global MBA Programs by Financial Times in 2018.
