

LSE-Fudan Double Degree

in the Global Political Economy of China and Europe

This joint double degree program is offered by Fudan University and London School of Economics and Political Science (LSE). The program will provide students with a multi-disciplinary analysis of key political and economic processes and problems in Europe and in China, considering them within a global context.

The duration of this program is 24 months full-time. The first year of the program will be spent in the European Institute at LSE, where students will study the Global Political Economy of China and Europe; the second year will be spent at Fudan University in Shanghai, where students will study Public Policy. This select program is delivered by world-leading experts in the fields of political economy and public policy.

Students fulfill the graduation and degree requirements of LSE and Fudan will be awarded the Master of Management in Public Policy from Fudan University, and the MSc in the Global Political Economy of China and Europe from LSE.

Application:

International students should first apply to this program at LSE. More details can be found at LSE website (<http://www.lse.ac.uk/study-at-lse/Graduate/Degree-programmes-2019/LSE-Fudan-Double-Degree-in-the-Global-Political-Economy-of-China-and-Europe>). Applications will be jointly reviewed and decided by LSE and Fudan University. Admitted students must go through a separate process of application to Fudan University under corresponding instructions.

In terms of specific requirements for documents used in the online application system or hard copies to mail to us, please follow the guideline for application on the website of International Students Office (<http://iso.fudan.edu.cn/xuwei.htm>)